DES announces new contest with monetary prizes

This semester the Gamma Delta chapter of the Delta Epsilon Sigma national Catholic honor society will sponsor a contest, with prizes in cash awards. All St. Joseph students carrying twelve credit hours or more are eligible, and the prizes are so arranged that every student has a nearly equal chance of winning one of the three prizes.

Following are the contest rules:

1. There is an entry fee of fifty cents. These fees will constitute the total cash prizes—the more entrants, the bigger the pot. If ten students enter, the pot will be five dollars. If a thousand students enter, the pot will be five hundred dollars.

2. Delta Epsilon Sigma will retain ten percent of total fees. This is to cover expenses and to enable DES to offer gratuitous prizes in later contests.

3. Thirty per cent ($150 in a $500 pot) will be awarded to the entrant who, at the end of the semester, has realized the largest rise in index (not percentage wise, but in absolute terms) from his index at the mid-term grading period. Thus, estimating from past grading periods, an entrant who jumps from a 1.5 index at the mid-term to a 2.5 index at the semester has an excellent chance of winning this prize.

4. Thirty per cent will be awarded to the entrant who has the largest cumulative for the two grading periods.

5. An arbitrary rise in index somewhere between .01 and .50 will be chosen, written on an index card, and committed to the care of the office of the Academic Dean, to be made public at the conclusion of the contest. Thirty per cent will be awarded to the entrant whose rise in index between the two grading periods equals or most nearly approximates the index rise on the "mystery" card. There is an element of chance in this prize, but it the intrepid spirit of seven sophomores.

The seven, Dominic Buttita, Terry Lavin, Jack Lambke, Mike McMahon, John McLoughlin, Bob Soltysiak and Jim Thompson, journeyed to Valpo at two a.m. Monday morning and after two hours labor, wrested the 750 pound bell from its eight-foot-high mounting place.

It was then shoved into an automobile and hauled to the Puma campus. The whole operation was completely undetected until Monday morning when irate Valpo-ites found their cast bronze pride and joy missing.

A large group of upperclassmen patrolled the campus Monday night to stop any possible attempt to retake the bell. One carload of Valpo students was apprehended, given hamburgers in the Rec hall and sent packing—without the bell.

The bell was used Tuesday night for a Puma pep rally and then transported back to Valpo.

Library retains semester loans

By JIM FRANCIS

Rev. Charles Banet, head of the St. Joseph's library, announced this week that the semester system of book loans inaugurated last year was successful and that the library will continue to operate under that system.

The system proved successful for several reasons. Valuable time was saved by the library staff by the elimination of overdue notices, which under this system were unnecessary, and the time consuming process of renewing books was eliminated (49% of all books were renewed in the past).

Only one major change has been made in the library policy for this semester. A courtesy card will be used to announce the request of a book out on loan and a fine for the non-return of a book on request by the library will be strictly enforced. Father Banet stated, however, that there were very few instances of non-response last year and that for all practical purposes there are no fines operative in the library except for reserve shelf books.

In order to further insure the success of the system, Father Banet emphasized the fact that the library has the right to recall books after two weeks, and insist that all books taken from the library be checked out.

First SC meeting draws 300; 'Twist' reinstated by Fr. Girt

The St. Joseph's College student council held its first open meeting of the '62-'63 school term Monday night in the Rec hall. Some 300 students attended.

Much old and new business passed before the council.

Cheers greeted President Emil Labbe's announcement that Fr. Richard Girt, the new dean of men, had reinstated the twist.

Jim Tuerff, chairman of the social committee announced mixer plans for the year and details of the planned mixer and game trip for Saturday's game at Valpo.

Senior class president Bill Downard announced plans for Homecoming weekend. (See story on this page.)

Mike Gatton, president of the disciplinary committee gave a summary of council disciplinary policy.

In other action:

The council heard a report by Paul Andorfer on the present status of the Pumamobile and appropriated $90 for expenses for the remainder of the year.

Appropriated $30 for cheerleading uniforms.

Appropriated $400 to help in purchasing intramural trophies.

Heard reports from all committee chairmen on their plans for the year.

Announced the arrival of the Valpo victory bell.

Dad's Day joins fathers, sons for game, stag party

Fathers of Puma football players sported their sons' jersey numbers and occupied fifty-yard line seats of honor. They were part of a group of some 250 St. Joe fathers.

Puma fathers journeying to St. Joseph's campus Saturday for Dad's Day activities were greeted by a large banner suspended over the main entrance to the campus. The banner read "Welcome Dads" and welcome they were! Cars started pouring onto the campus shortly before noon.

Dads, students and Puma fans in general were pleased as the St.

Joseph's eleven came close to upsetting the favored Mauraders of Central State. Before the Pumas battled the Mauraders to a 14-14 tie, each player was introduced individually with his father, and fathers and sons walked in pairs across the field to the Puma bench.

The Rec hall was the scene for the stag party which followed the game. Featuring free beer, pop, pretzels, peanuts and potato chips, the party was intended for fathers and students alone, but as it turned out, mothers were equally welcomed. There were between 250 and 300 fathers attending the party.

Student Council president Emil Labbe called on Father Gross, president of the college, and Ed Dwyer, head football coach to say a few words. Father Gross welcomed the parents and friends of the college and wished the Pumas good luck in future games.

Coach Dwyer commended the team on its fine play in Saturday's game and promised the student body (and the team) that the players would be working hard to improve for the invasion at Valparaiso.

As fathers registered at the gate before the game, they signed up for a drawing to be held at the party in the Rec hall. The winner of the drawing was Mr. Linus O. Eckerle, father of sophomore class president Dave Eckerle. The prize: a fifth of whiskey.

Homecoming activities announced; dance to include underclassmen

By RUSSELL CARSON

St. Joseph's homecoming this year will include the usual programs and activities of homecoming weekend plus the new feature of the admission of underclassmen to the Saturday night homecoming dance.

According to Bill Downard,

Mixers set for Sept. 29, Oct. 6

By AUDREY URBANCZYK

A mixer, barbeque, and bus trip to Valparaiso have been scheduled by the Student Council for Saturday, September 29.

The activities will begin with a mixer at 1:15 in the Rec hall with girls from eight schools attending. Following the mixer will be an outdoor barbeque. Then the girls and Pumas will board buses at 6:45 for the Valpo-St. Joe football game.

The following schools have been invited: St. Elizabeth's School of Nursing, Rosary college, Mundelein, St. Xavier, St. Francis of Joliet, St. Margaret's School of Nursing in Hammond, Mercy School of Nursing in Gary, and the Calumet Center.

The first of six mixers on the school social calendar will be held the week-end of October 6. Approximately 400 girls from eleven schools have been invited. The schools are: St. Mary of the Woods, St. Francis of Joliet, St. Francis of Ft. Wayne, Nazareth, Mundelein, Rosary, Barat, Mount Mary of Milwaukee, Marian, St. Xavier, and the Calumet Center.

senior class president, the festivities will start on Friday, October 19 with the pep rally and bonfire from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Following this, there will be a dance for seniors only in the Rec hall starting at 10:00 p.m. and ending at 1:00 a.m.

On Saturday from noon until game time all the halls on campus will hold open house. During this time all resident students in all halls must have their doors open. Those who have dates on campus will be allowed to take their dates to the halls and rooms.

After the game, in which the Pumas will tangle with Butler, last year's conference champions, there will be a cocktail party in the back part of the fieldhouse for seniors and alumni. At this time the underclassmen will have a record hop in the Rec hall.

The big event of the evening after the buffet dinner in the Rec hall will be the dance, starting at 9:00 p.m. The dance will be open to underclassmen from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. From 1:00 to 2:00 a.m. it will be for seniors only.

Downard also mentioned that as yet no band has been signed to play for the dance, and that the tickets would be five dollars.

As for the traditional hall decorations, Downard said that this year they would be put up in front of the halls that build them. It is not definite as yet, however, where the projects by the various campus clubs will be erected.

Series of concerts announced for year

The schedule for the 1962-63 concert series has been announced. There will be four attractions. Three of them are scheduled for the fieldhouse and one for the auditorium.

On October 9 Dr. John B. Egan, pianist and a member of the college music faculty, will present a piano concert. Dr. Egan holds a doctorate in music from Indiana university. Before coming to St. Joe he was in charge of the music department at St. Francis Xavier university in Antigonish, Nova Scotia, Can.

On January 10 the Indiana University Philharmonic Orchestra, under the direction of Tibor Kozma, will present a concert in the fieldhouse. This orchestra has appeared in New York's Carnegie hall and in many of the major cities of the U.S.

On February 14 the Indiana University brass choir will appear in the auditorium. Under the direction of William Adam this unusual group has developed a program ranging from early

High spirit must continue; council policy merits praise

On a campus where spirit has been, in years gone by, a whimsical, fluctuating thing, the events of the last year and particularly the events of the past week have been more than gratifying.

Last year, as all present sophomores, juniors and seniors will recall, marked a rebirth in Puma school spirit. Athletic contests became vocal maelstroms as Pumas screamed and cheered and sang behind their teams, win or lose.

It was not always thus. Surprisingly enough, even the greatest years of St. Joseph's athletic glory, the football teams of the '54-'59 era, were marked by a rather mediocre brand of spirit.

But last year spirit budded and this year it is in full bloom. Both rallies and the one home football game have been exceedingly well-attended. And this week, to bolster spirits already soaring after last Saturday's game, seven sophomores have counted coup in a never-to-be-forgotten fashion on arch-rival Valparaiso.

Their action, coming as it did in a year when spirit was already high may not seem too important. But the shining page they have added to Pumaland history will survive far beyond their days at St. Joseph's. They may look with pride to their accomplishment and rest secure in the knowledge that neither the students of St. Joe or Valparaiso will soon forget what they have done.

It remains for the student body to follow for the duration of the year the course they have begun and back their teams, win, lose or draw.

The function of the editorials of this newspaper is not merely that of criticism, but rather that of giving criticism where it is due and praise where it is merited. And it is indeed a pleasant task when student government can be praised for its actions.

This year's council is to be commended for its recognition of the proper status of the council disciplinary committee. Under the current council format, the president is no longer acting chairman of the council disciplinary committee, as was the case last year.

The fruits the council will reap from this new arrangement will be many. Since, more and more in recent years, the president has become the personification of the council, any disciplinary action taken through him tends to alienate the student body from the council. Such was repeatedly and unfortunately the case last year when the actions of a capable council were hindered by student resentment of the council's disciplinary function as exercised through its president.

This year discipline has been relegated to its proper place as only one of the many functions of the council. Also, a new slant has been taken on the method in which the disciplinary function is to be exercised. It is to be preventive rather than punitive—aimed at helping the student to stay out of trouble, rather than catching and punishing offenders or delivering them up for punishment.

The council has acted wisely in ordaining these policies. Let us hope they will follow them closely.

October 6; eleven girls' schools have been invited, making this one of the biggest ever. Jim was also the head of the planning for the very successful Dad's Day here last weekend. For all of these things Jim and the other members of the social committee, as well as all the others who have helped and are now helping him, deserve congratulations and thanks.

The cataloguing of examinations, a craft currently practiced on a more or less informal basis by crafty Pumas will be organized by Don Hoffman and his scholastic committee. This is, I think, a good idea, and should serve to put students in a more competitive position. The tutoring service, always a delicate matter, is being started early. This is good, because by the time finals arrive, it is often too late.

All in all, the first meeting of this school year was a success. This was not by mere chance; rather, the hard work put in by all committees and officers is now beginning to become apparent. Certainly not everyone will be delighted with all the developments which the Council is engineering, but no one of us should think that they are trying to do a superior job.

Pumaville Fever

Let's keep moving

By DAN ZAWILA

Slogan of the week: "College and Community; forward together!" St. Joe gets a new student union; Reinselaer adds a new sewage line, and ne'er the twain shall meet.

Unfortunately, Emil "let the word go forth" Labbe followed Ike's advice to keep America moving. Seniors move out of Bennett into town, freshmen move into Gallagher, while the sophomores move into the lounges.

Emil, funny thing happened to Bill Schine and Ed Kantowicz: they live with the deputy sheriff.

If it's any consolation to moving Pumaville, when our new Dean of Men attempted to move into his throne room in Bennett this summer, he quickly retreated to the ad building, because he found the room already occupied by a nun.

"Pace" Pacenti, of last year's "Louise" fame, recently made a move for not one, but two, young, buxom Republicans from Fowler. He told them of his interest in a female chemistry major from IU, who had discovered YG7, a cure for athlete's foot. The girl left "Pace" unattended, with his athletic foot in his mouth.

Ed Lysaught moved into the lucrative coke business as Ike held Republican attention by hammering the Democrats. After a profitable evening, Ed feasted on free chicken, compliments of the GOP.

Bill Vaught, Pumaville's Mitch Miller, led ten sipping, singing, slobbering Pumas in a choral tribute to Charlie Hallelc punctuated by "Yuk, Yuks" and "hiccups" behind the South side, while the GOP rally was in full swing.

The marital mortality rate has increased in the class of '63. Such Pumas as Gatton, Miller, Mirocha, Knapp, and "navigator" Navigato, have made the move that makes the difference. Never see too much of them anymore.

Confidential to Jim Magill: This is your last chance to reconsider. When you put that ring on her finger, she puts one through your nose, and you've got nasal trouble as it is!

Bill "Beefy Bear" Downard made some girl glad in Cincinnati by asking her to become Mama Bear in the coming year. He's so enamoured that he made tracks to "Cincy" last weekend. No hibernation this year!

John (formerly "Flabione") Babione fell in love with TV's Debby Drake (the morning exercise girl) this summer, and now plans on leaving his pants to Jim Magill.

In an effort to soothe his broken heart, Jack "Archaic" Ziegler has sought the companionship of a stuffed duck. Anyone interested in seeing a Umack bird—Halas 306.

Who's Cynthia?

Rumor has it that Mr. Marini is considering moving to Hillsdale, Michigan. Apparently the "mighty-mite" stopped in a bar in that fair city, and was carded. (You musta been a beautiful baby.)

While Southern Cal. had the McKeever twins, Pumaville has the bonny, auburn-haired Whitaker sisters who play havoc on the switchboard.

The stumpy stools are in such disarray, that either low caliber seminarians have been made their way into C.P.P.S.dom, or else somebody's been playing checkers on the Appian way.

Father Banet still wears those grey, AA "T" shirts from the Fr. Baird era, but you'd better forget any ideas of adding them to your own collection. Fr. Banet has a motto: "Noli me "T" shirt tangere."

Lately Al Kanne has been melting down silver and shipping it in bullion form. You'd be surprised at how affluent our professors are.

After that last Reviews at Random, aren't you glad you go to St. Joe where it's cool to go to school with a hole in your "T" shirt.

Council Critique

Writer praises spirit shown at SC meeting

By DAVE CUNNINGHAM

Emil Labbe called to order the second open meeting of his Student Council on Monday, September 24, at 7:30. The many students who attended are to be congratulated for the school spirit which they displayed: athletic events always draw large crowds of Pumas, whereas the Council meetings are typically ill-attended. This is ironic because many students spend more energy criticising the Student Council than playing sports, yet never bother to attend a meeting or voice their opinion where it might do some good.

Emil rose to the occasion and led the spirited crowd through a few animated cheers—one for the boys that stole the Valpo victory bell, another for the long awaited return of the Twist to our campus, and still another for Lennie Bara as a reward for getting the students' money back from the administration.

Mike Gatton, head of the disciplinary committee, arrived a little late, but was promptly introduced by Emil, as only Emil could, and proceeded to do a fine job of explaining the duties of his committee. I think that the bad taste still lingering in many Pumas' mouths, caused by one too many swallows of last year's "Gestapo Committee," has already been sweetened a bit, if only by the announcement that no more mass raids are currently being planned. Could it be that the Rule of Reason has returned?

Jim Tuerff, chairman of the social committee, announced the particulars of the student trip planned for the Valpo game, preceded by a mixer here on campus. He also announced a mixer set for

Visiting authors for lecture series named

By TOM CACHUR

The 1962-1963 lecture series of the Visiting Author program has recently been announced by Fr. John Klopke, C.P.P.S.

Dr. Edgar Friedenberg will begin the series on October 16. His topic will be "The Adolescent Image." Dr. Friedenberg is a professor of education at Brooklyn college. He has written the book, The Vanishing Adolescent.

The second lecture is scheduled for December 4. Dr. Selig Adler, author of The Isolationist Impulse, will speak on "American Foreign Policy." Dr. Adler is a professor of history at the University of Buffalo.

On March 12, the author of I Believed, Douglas Hyde, will lecture on "Students: The Communist Target." Mr. Hyde is a convert to Catholicism from Communism. He is a former news editor of the London Daily Worker.

The lecture series will come to a close on April 23. The literary editor of America, Fr. Harold Gardiner, S.J., will talk on "Monies, Morals, and Art." Father Gardiner is the author of "Catholic Viewpoint on Censorship."

All lectures are scheduled for Tuesday evenings at 7:30 in the auditorium. Following each lecture there will be a coffee break and then a discussion period at approximately 9:00 p.m.

Student protests implied political affiliations

Dear Editor,

Why are campus facilities being used for the activities of political parties thereby implying a definite political position to the college and the students of that college?

Pumas tie Central State, 14-14

Isselhard, Dostal score for Pumas

By CHARLES J. SCHUTTROW

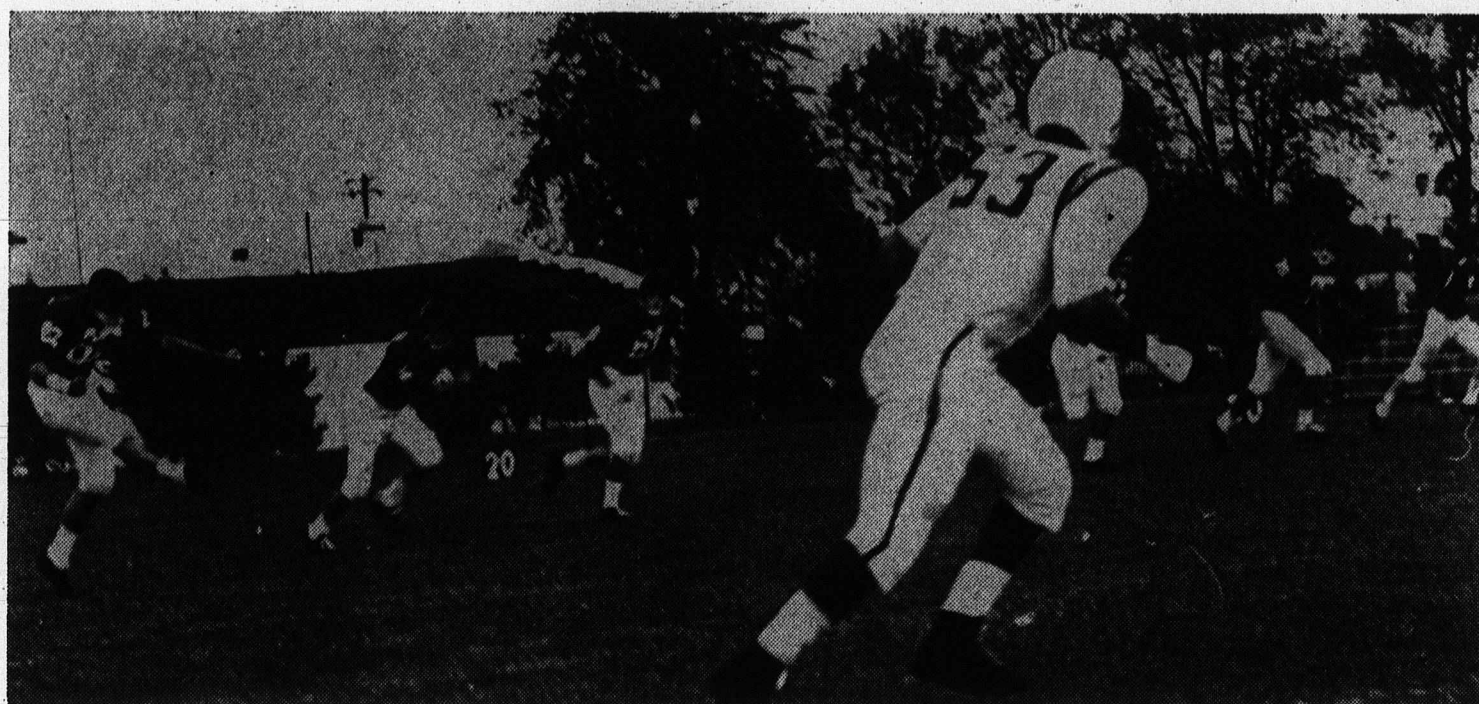

St. Joseph's underdog Pumas performed well for a large "Dad's Day" crowd, scoring first and fourth quarter touchdowns Saturday on St. Joseph's field to offset two Central State scores and earn a 14-14 tie with the powerful Marauders.

The Marauders narrowly missed a victory in the closing seconds when end Dean Bittner's 21-yard field goal attempt fell short of the crossbar.

St. Joseph's kicked off to Central State and held the vaunted Marauder attack for three downs. On fourth down, punter Dave West fumbled the pass from center and was downed for a two-yard loss attempting to circle his own left end.

The Pumas took over on the Marauder 26. Six plays later quarterback Dennis Anderson hit end Terry Isselhard with a 15-yard look-in pass for a touchdown. Guard Dick Hagye kicked the extra point and St. Joseph's led, 7-0, with just 4:26 gone in the game.

Mid-way in the second quarter, Marauder quarterback James Harper capped a 70-yard drive when he ran five yards to score on a roll-out around his own left end. Halfback Constantine Alverson's run for the conversion failed with 7:55 to play in the half. St. Joseph's led, 7-6. Central State launched another drive five minutes later which stalled on the Pumas' 26 when three of Harper's passes fell incomplete and an end run lost six yards.

Mid-way in the fourth quarter Dave Ogren recovered a halfback Percy Robinson's fumble on the Pumas' 29. Led by the power-running of Don Bian and Jim Betz, St. Joseph's rolled to five consecutive first downs and advanced the ball to the Central State 16.

After Betz gained two, Anderson gave the ball to halfback Ron Dostal on a reverse play and the Canadian speedster skirted his own left end for 14 yards and a touchdown. Hagye again kicked the extra point and St. Joseph's led, 14-6, with 6:30 to play.

West returned the kickoff 19 yards to the Marauder 42. Then Harper completed 18, 26 and eight-yard passes to Robinson, Bittner and West to move the ball to the Pumas' six.

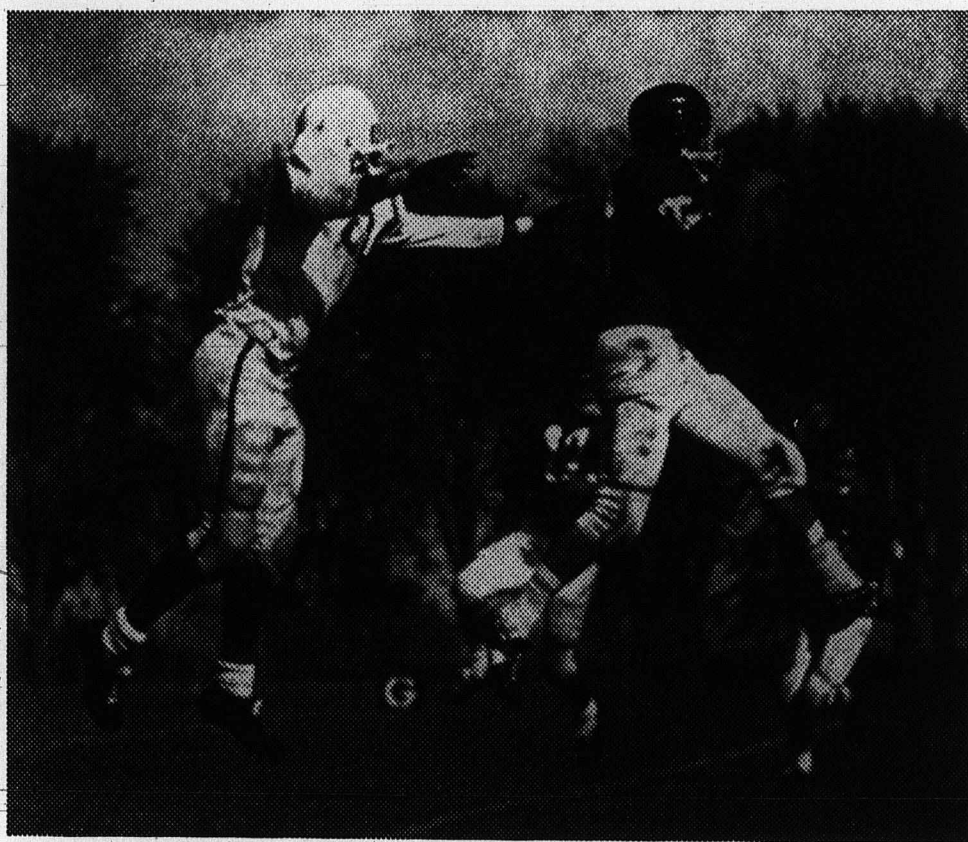

After halfback Washington Guyton failed to gain, Harper gained five yards on an end run and then scored on a one-yard sneak. Harper circled his own right end to add the two point conversion and tie the score at 14-14 with 4:40 to play.

Less than three minutes later, Harper spearheaded another drive which carried Central State to the Pumas' 11-yard line. The key play in the march was a 39-yard Harper-Alverson pass which moved the ball from St. Joseph's 40 to their 11.

After a Harper-West pass fell incomplete, Bittner missed his 21-yard field goal with nine seconds to play.

The Pumas gained two yards in three rushes as time ran out.

St. Joseph's gained 180 yards rushing and 15 passing for a 195 total while Central State gained 202 rushing and 146 passing for a 318 total. Anderson completed two of seven passes for 15 yards, one touchdown and a .286 percentage while Harper completed six of 16 throws for 146 yards and a .375 average.

Intramural Scoreboard

By JIM FORD

With the beginning of a new school year St. Joseph's fine intramural program will once again be underway. A fourteen page pamphlet has already been distributed to all students in order that confusion may be avoided later in the school year. It is hoped that this pamphlet will give the students a better idea of how the I.M. program functions.

Contained in this pamphlet are the rules of the program in regard to eligibility and the point system as well as the enumeration of awards given in individual and team competition.

Coach Don Merki, who begins his second year as director of the intramural program, states that the purpose of the I.M. department is to offer a wider selection of activities in order to give the students a choice of athletic events. He emphasized that the program is aimed at all students, for it is upon student participation that the success of the program rests.

The intramural program is controlled by an intramural council working in cooperation with Mr. Merki. Student representation in the program is through this council which is composed of representatives from each residence hall. These representatives either have been or will be elected by the students in each hall.

The duties of each hall representative include being spokesman for the students in his hall in all matters concerning intramurals and relating to the students all matters discussed by the council. Each representative is also given intramural equipment which can be loaned to the students in his hall when the intramural window in the field-house is closed.

The intramural program itself has been expanded this year by the addition of four new individual competitive events. These include a distance walking race, a football skill contest, a free throw contest, and a baseball batting contest.

The sports which are scheduled for the fall semester are touch football, tennis (singles and doubles), cross country, chess, the distance walking race, the football skill contest, table tennis singles, basketball, bridge, and the free throw contest. The entry dates and the beginning dates are listed in the calendar of events below. (Basketball will, of course, continue into the second semester of the school year.)

Competition is on a residence hall basis and there are no exceptions to the rule that students must participate in the program only with students from their own residence halls. These halls—Merlini, Halas, Drexel, West Seifert, East Seifert, Washburn, Noll, Bennett, and Gaspar are single competitive units. Scharf House, Aquinas and Powerhouse will play as a unit as will Gallagher and the sophomores in White House.

There have been some major changes in the rules for the 1962 football season. Beginning this year, the kickoff will be abolished. Also, each team is asked to provide one official who will officiate along with the officials already assigned by the I.M. department.

St. Joe to battle Valpo Saturday in search for victory

While the Pumas were battling Central State to a 14-14 tie last Saturday, the Valpo Crusaders were cruising to a 48-0 massacre of Michigan's Hope college. This Saturday night Pumas and Crusaders—fierce rivals since 1921—will battle it out at Valparaiso's Brown field.

Last year the Crusaders, coached by Emory Bauer and Walt Renier, defeated the Pumas by a 16-6 score. The victory was the fourteenth for Valpo in the long series. The Pumas have won ten games, and two of the contests ended in ties.

Valpo won the first game of the series 59-0 in 1921. The teams did not meet again till 1933, but have played each year since except for 1957 and the war years of 1943-45. In 1960 the Pumas defeated the Crusaders 21-14 for the first time since 1956.

Twenty-one returning lettermen bolster the Crusader attack. Included are co-captains guard Tyrone Smith and center Ralph Grant, tackle Dale Lentz, end Jim Konrad, quarterback Dick Pohlman and fullback Rick Willer.

The passing of Pohlman, and the running of Pohlman and Willer highlighted Valpo's rout of Hope, a team which Valpo beat by only 14-6 last year. Willer, along with June graduate John Knight, led the Crusaders to last year's victory over the Pumas.

A reversal of this procedure, and the seizure of control of the bitter rivalry will be sought by the Pumas when the two teams meet Saturday night.

St. Joe tennis team to play fall matches

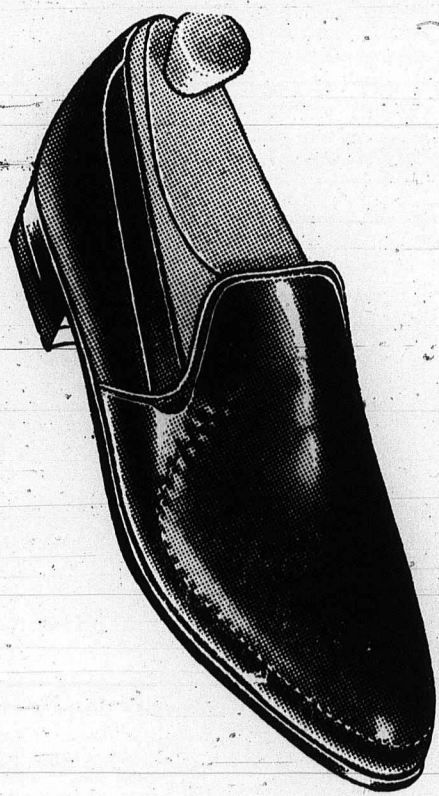

This fall will mark the first time in the history of St. Joseph's a tennis team will play a fall season. On Oct. 6 the St. Joe tennis squad will meet Marian College at 10 a.m. on the Pumaville courts.

Student coach John Sorg said he hopes this new fall program will give him some indication of what the 14 match spring season will bring. Sorg, who is in his second year of coaching the tennis team, added that he expects this year's team to be stronger because of the introduction of new competitive elimination play among team members. He said it is this competition which will determine who plays in inter-collegiate competition.

This season's team will have four lettermen returning in senior Thomas Miller and juniors John Luxem, William Currie, and Dan Sorg. Other members of the squad include seniors Mike Reinhart and Peter Shen; juniors George Sterzinger and Patrick Traci; and sophomores Brendan Choi, Mike Mixson, and Rodger Cotterill.

A tentative re-match with Marian College has been scheduled at St. Joe's for the week-end of Oct. 20.

Gymnast club formed

By CARL BRENNER

Last spring, Director of Athletics, Richard Scharf and coach Ed Dwyer suggested that there be more athletic clubs organized for the use of the student body. As a result the St. Joseph's college Turners (gymnastics) club was inaugurated at a meeting in the fieldhouse on April 5.

Mr. Alfred Henschel, who has been turning since he was six years old, was appointed instructor of the club. He received his gymnastic training in Germany.

Father Scheidler was selected as organizer and moderator of the Turners' club. Father Scheidler, who started turning in 1903, first became head of St. Joseph's Turners' club in 1913.

On March 9, 1913, the Turners performed their first exhibition under his guidance. During the next 13 years they performed 13 more shows.

The highlight of these was a two-hour performance in 1921, at the St. Alphonsus Athenaeum in Chicago.

In 1925, Father Scheidler was appointed Procurator Economist and Treasurer of St. Joseph's College. The appointment forced him to resign as moderator of the Turners' club, which then ceased to exist.

At present there are seven members in the Turners' club: Bill Mohan, Pete Saxton, Wolfgang Henschel, Eugene Alvarez, Bob Orlinski, Joseph Shimala and Tom Scheidler. According to Father Scheidler, it will take about three dozen members to make the club complete. Anyone interested in joining may learn more about the club by contacting Fr. Scheidler or Mr. Henschel.

Campus busy during summer

The St. Joseph's College campus does not, as some might believe, lay dormant through the summer months. Rather it is a hotbed of activity as various groups throughout the summer utilize its facilities.

This summer's program was no less active than that of any other year.

June 8-10 the college facilities were used by Alcoholics Anonymous for their annual retreat and from June 11-15 the priests of the Gary diocese held theirs. June 18-22, 45 C.P.P.S. priests made their retreat.

From July 1-4 the religious superiors of all the major orders of men in the United States held their national meeting.

August 3-11 the Young Christian Workers held their national convention with some 250 delegates attending.

August 13-19 the National Catholic Bandmasters met with some 150 delegates in attendance.

August 19-25 was the National Catholic Music Educators convention, followed, on August 26-30 by the national convention of the Young Christian Students with some 300 delegates.

Hush Puppies

BREATHIN' BRUSHED PIGSKIN CASUAL SHOES
BY WOLVERINE

9.95

We're talking about Hush Puppies . . . the shoes a man really goes for. Why? Because they're so darn good-looking . . . featherlight and mighty easy to take care of. Soil brushes away . . . ground-in grime disappears with suds and water. Why not give 'em a try. You'll find a style, size and width just right for you.
